

Diversity of opinion and disbursement of ownership are cornerstones of any Democracy. The proposal to change the rules effecting the ownership of broadcasting stations is sure to negatively effect both of these critical qualities. I urge the commission to listen to the public and deny this proposal. This measure only serves to help large media empires not the American citizenry which the government is supposed to represent.